Tuition fee is payable in full, prior to the commencement of Academic Year, however we allow the parents to pay the fees in 3 instalments as scheduled above.

- *Please note the annual tuition fee doesn't include Books, Uniform Fees, Transport Fee & ICT Fees.
- Students enrolled or re-registered on or before April 30, 2024, will be eligible for a gift amount of KD75. The gift amount shall be credited to the parent account during the academic year 2024-2025 subject to the following conditions:
 - ✓ If the registration is processed on or before March 31, 2024 and Tuition fees of 1st and 2nd term of the academic year 2023-2024 are paid in full. The parent will then be eligible for the gift voucher.
 - ✓ If the registration is processed on or after April 01, 2024 and before April 30, 2024 and the full Tuition fees of the academic year 2023-2024 are paid the parent will then be eligible for the gift voucher.
- The gift amount will be valid upon payment of the 1st tuition fee instalment in full for the academic year 2024-2025.
- This gift amount can be used on buying inventory items like Uniform or Books.
- The gift amount can be used to settle the 3rd tuition fee instalment provided that the 1st and 2nd tuition fee instalments are paid.
- An application process fee (non-refundable) of KD25 is to be paid for the first-time admission.
- The application process fee of KD25 will be adjusted for the 1st instalment fee if the student is selected and enrolled.
- KD100 is payable at the time of registration as an advance. This will also be adjusted against the 1st instalment fees after the registration process is completed.
- As approved by the Ministry of Education "Information and Communication Technology (ICT)" will be used to enhance academic process & communication. The fee for it will be charged upon implementation.
- Subject to the implementation of ICT services, an ICT Fee of KD35 per year will be charged.
